

Why is this service not free like other health services?

Whilst they may, in some cases, be subsidised you will still be expected to pay towards the cost. We believe that investing in yourself is part of the journey to wellbeing. Prioritising and valuing our health is an important step in growing our sense of self-worth.